Mother's Prayer

I said a Mother's Day prayer for you to thank the Lord above for blessing me with a lifetime of your tenderhearted love.

I thanked God for the caring you've shown me through the years, for the closeness we've enjoyed in time of laughter and of tears.

And so, I thank you from the heart for all you've done for me and I bless the Lord for giving me the best mother there could be!

Prayer Focus – May 2021 – Camp Wakonda

By Renee Sanford, Prayer Coordinator

Camp season is on the way! We are all rejoicing that camp will be “fully operational” this summer! Let’s help lay a firm foundation of prayer for the 2021 campers, staff and families.

Camp Wakonda 2021 Camps (VBS, Intermediate, Camp Collision)

- LORD may you be glorified in the camp season!
- May you be worshipped in spirit & in truth
- Let camp be filled with faith, friends, fun & joy
- Let there be salvation & spiritual growth for campers & staff
- Pour out spiritual freedom & blessings for all who come to camp
- Make Camp Wakonda a welcoming place of deep peace
- Create a sense of belonging & long-term faith-focused relationships
- Keep everyone physically & medically safe

Camp Directors and Staff

- LORD, we ask for your Holy Spirit to guide the content of all camp programs
- We ask your protection, guidance, strength, encouragement & peace for the directors, teachers, & counselors
- Help us secure full staffing for all camps; keep staff safe from any health issues
- We specifically lift up Pastor Nate, Angie Mullen,

Marcy Kersten, Larry Schultz, Kathleen Holbrook & Doneta Osborn

Camp Support Staff

- LORD, we ask for early identification of helpers & commitment from volunteers to fill all the support positions
- Guide & equip the medical & kitchen staff as they cope with new guidelines related to the pandemic
- Let registration & administrative support run smoothly.
- We specifically lift up Sydnee Bush, Margot Harris, Doneta Osborn, Brittney Kersten, & Janet Butler.

Physical Plant/Grounds

Campers and Families

- Give families wisdom in making health & social distancing decisions related to attending camp
- Prepare the hearts and minds of campers for the joy of Camp Wakonda
- Provide funding to those who need it
- Alert us to un-churched children in our neighborhoods so we can invite them to camp

As you can see, the focus of these prayers is on camp preparation and logistics. If you want to “get a jumpstart” on spiritual blessings for our campers, check out the article on our website!

www.theconnecting.church/wakonda

LORD, we long for each camper to seek you, to be guided by your spirit, experiencing salvation & transformation, growing in grace & the fruit of the spirit. Let our young people persevere in the faith and influence their families, friends & community for your kingdom.

Awana Clubbers and their families are invited to attend our Year-End Celebration on Wednesday, May 5 at 6:30 in the sanctuary. We will be thanking God for his provision as we were able to meet all club year during this pandemic! Each of our clubbers will be recognized for their hard work in memorizing God's Word and book completion awards will be handed out. Families will sit together and masks are required.

While we would love for our church family to join us, this year we ask that you join us in prayers of praise and thanksgiving at home. But take a drive by the church on Wednesday, May 5th and check out the surprise we will have there for our clubbers!

Our New Family Restroom and Water Fountain

Be sure to lock the door when entering.

The upstairs Women's room will continue to be for Women only.

And the downstairs restrooms will remain for Men and Women separately.

Farewell to Our Awana Missionaries

Our Awana Missionaries, Tim and Sherry Thomas, announced at the end of March that they would be stepping down from this role and returning to Florida to be near their children and grandchildren. We are thankful for their 15 years of service to our club and to reaching children with the message of the Gospel all over Wisconsin. Please join us in praying for their transition.

The following is the letter we received from Tim and Sherry.

*Deuteronomy 4:9
Be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them fade from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them.*

*Psalm 78:4 & 6
We will not hide them from our children; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord - so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children.*

*Dear Friends,
In 1971, I started attending Awana as a 3rd grade Hunter,* then part of the Pals Club at Medinah Baptist Church. Who but God could know what the next 50 years would encompass?

Ten years later, Sherry and I, and my mother, Lois, became Awana leaders at a church in Pensacola, Florida. A few years later, our children started in Cubbies. Over the next 25 years, we served as leaders, directors, commanders, and ministry team members for two Awana missionaries. Then in 2006, we started on a new adventure, moving to Wisconsin as new Awana missionaries.

Over these past 15 years, we have seen the hand of God sustain us through the generosity of churches and individuals who prayed and supported the ministry of Awana in Wisconsin. It has been an honor and a privilege serving shoulder-to-shoulder with so many dedicated volunteers giving their lives to disciple the next generation for Christ. During these 15 years, we have also seen our children grow up and start families of their own, some of whom are now 3rd generation Awana leaders and our grandchildren 3rd generation clubbers.

Just like winter gives way to spring, we, too, go through seasons in our lives. It is time for us to enter into a new season. April 2, 2021 will be our last day with Awana. Over the next few months, we will move back to Florida to be closer to our children and be more involved in our grandchildren's lives.

Fellow missionaries Tim & Cheryl Gilley, who currently serve in western Wisconsin, will take over for us serving the entire state. We know that you will welcome and support them the same way you supported us.

It is with grateful hearts that we thank each of you and pray God's continued blessings as you continue making resilient disciples who will know, love, and serve Jesus until He returns.

In Christ, Tim & Sherry Thomas

Koinonia: Summer Missions Scholarships

Teens: If you are participating in Koinonia this year, complete a short-term missions scholarship form. Your church desires to support you monetarily and through prayer. Part of this process is reporting back to the church afterwards on what was accomplished and how it impacted you.

As your church, we are encouraged by hearing how Christ worked in you through the process.

Please contact the church office to obtain the form.

Supporting Our Long-term Missionaries

by Linda Lyke, Outreach Coordinator

Milton Seventh Day Baptist Church sends out four long-term missionaries to fulfill the Great Commission, making disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:19). We as a church are called to send out missionaries. But this also means that we as individuals have a role within the church body to be senders.

This includes praying for them regularly, sending them encouraging notes, encouraging them when they come to visit and supporting them financially. For a long term missionary, monthly financial support is greatly appreciated. Would you consider donating monthly to our long-term missionaries? One easy way is to make a check out to our church with the missionary's name in the memo line.

These are our four missionaries:

Larry Schultz: Larry ministers locally to High School students through Bible studies, lunch time faith discussions during the school week, and in Koinonia Singers, a gospel touring group with a show choir flair.

Nathaniel Muench: In 2008 Nathaniel and his brother Zac started Skaters of Christ Skateboard Ministry. He was only a young teen at the time and didn't even know much about skateboarding. Since that time he and his crew have gone all over the world sharing the good news of Christ. He is currently reaching out to skaters in Europe and is based in Berlin, Germany. Because of the refugee crisis, he has increasing opportunities to reach out using skateboarding as a bridge to the hearts of young refugees.

Zac Muench: In 2008 Zac and his brother, Nathaniel started Skaters of Christ Skateboard Ministry. He has been many places in the world, sharing the love of Jesus through skateboard ministry. He is currently reaching out to skaters in Europe and is based in Barcelona, Spain. He is working with Youth With a Mission in training new leaders and also with the "Calling All Skater's Program.

Jan Teat: has been on staff with Q Place since 2001. She has experienced the joy of starting many Q Place groups, seeing firsthand how God changes lives when people are able to discuss questions about life, God, and the Bible in a safe environment. Serving on the leadership team as National Field Director, Jan loves coaching Christians to start groups like hers. She also trains pastors and church leaders to use Q Place's 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations curriculum for the greatest impact, so that many more Christians are engaging with people around them like Jesus did. Jan and Dave have three grown children and four grandchildren and live in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

World on Mission by Linda Lyke, Outreach Coordinator

In “World on Mission” each month I share a bit about what we learned in the Perspectives on the World Christian Movement class – because God calls ALL of us to have a part in his mission. What is His mission?

solite lack of food, shelter or clothing, then their poverty is a “relative poverty.”

Absolute poverty:

describes

situations where people have an absolute insufficiency to meet the basic needs of life.

“God is on mission to be loved, served and worshiped by people from all humanity.”
(Perspectives Study Guide - PSG, pg 4)

In our Perspectives course, I learned the difference between first and third world poverty. One way to understand the difference is to look at relative versus absolute poverty:

Relative poverty:

describes a situation in which people are on the margins of society. One person's standard of living is compared to another person's standard of living. In North America, a family may be considered poor if they don't have their own telephone, have no car or obtain food using food stamps. However a family in India who does not have a car or telephone may not be considered poor at all. If neither family is suffering from an ab-

Compare some of the poorest people in North America with the poorest of Calcutta. Questions to think about: How would you categorize most of the poverty of North America – absolute or relative poverty? Why does the distinction matter?

It can be misleading to think of poverty as a problem that can be eliminated by economic solutions. A better view of poverty is to think of it as a deficit and what causes the “lack.”

Broken relationships:

are at the root of the ills and grief of the poor, the Bible explains. This perspective helps us understand the history of poverty and the complexity.

Misused power: can be at the foundation of those who live in poverty.

“Examining the plight of the poor communities often reveals some kind of exploitation.”*

Fear: is the opposite of faith, so fear is a spiritual problem. When we fear, we are impoverished. This can be true of anyone, but very often those in impoverished situations, because they can be afraid of those who have influence over their future and well being. In some cultures there is fear of the spirit world, the unseen world of demons, spirits and ancestors.

Poverty is essentially a spiritual issue. “Only the gospel – all of it – contains the hope that the poor will be enabled to live in communities where relationships are restored, abusive power is broken and fears are allayed.”*

That's what we as Christ followers do. When missionaries go into communities of poverty, they bring Christ's transforming eternal work with them. The most powerful of which is the transformational work of the heart, to know and love Jesus forever.

Never cease to pray about your role in the Great Commission: Matt 28:19-20a Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.

*(Commentary above from Perspectives on the World Christian Movement, Study Guide, pgs. 134, 135)

The 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations

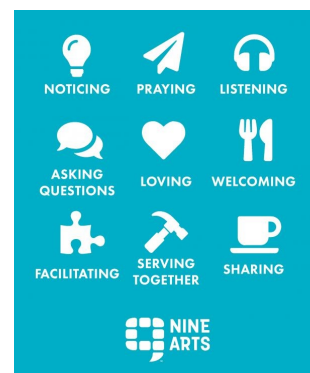

Jesus as well as His disciples, were intentional in engaging spiritual seekers and walking with them on the discipleship journey. Using Jesus' example, these 9 Arts open doors for drawing spiritual seekers to Christ.

You can think of the nine arts in groups of three:

Getting Ready: Noticing, Praying, Listening

Getting Started: Asking Questions, Loving, Welcoming

Keeping It Going: Facilitating,* Serving Together, Sharing

*Featured Art: The Art of Facilitating by Shanny Snyder

What a big, intimidating word. Yet, if you break it down from its Latin origin, it means "to make easy". Hmm. That sounds less scary already. Facilitating a group in terms of a Bible study is the act of asking thought provoking questions, waiting AND praying in the silence that will typically follow right after asking the question, guiding your members through the material and, most importantly, being present in the study with the people you're ministering to. Yes, it's quite a lot! But this can be done! Leaning on the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit is something that has never failed because He wants to be invited into a time with meaning and intentionality. After all, it is His inspired Word that we're digging into!

Preparing for a lesson and making the lesson applicable and memorable are also high on the priority list of making a Bible study stick in the mind's of the people who will be following your lead. It is your choice if you're going to enter that time stressed, bored or expectant to take away something you'll learn along with the group.

You don't have to be an expert on the material, but having some basic knowledge of the material you're going to present never hurt a study or hindered the facilitator in the process... that I know of. You bring yourself and your talents to the people around you in the group. Often that includes a bit of humor and a couple mistakes. But most of the members will come back even with a few hiccups! It's good for people to see that you are indeed human as they are human.

Having a professional yet relaxed approach to the folks in your meeting typically serves a Bible study quite nicely. When you set up a Bible study, you'll want to begin and end on time, have set guidelines in place and present them to new members when they join, God willing, and begin with prayer inside your heart. Jesus likes to hear from us! Remember, nervousness is normal. The gospel is a big deal! But we have a Helper who aids us in planting the seeds in our hearer's hearts. Be bold! Be brave! And be in love with Jesus so much that you actually tell people about Him in an excited way!

Example: If you see someone on a zoom call lean in as someone asks a question or states a fact, take that as an invitation to ask them what pricked their interest. Chances are, they subconsciously wanted to be asked but weren't quite brave enough to speak up but YOU noticed! Be prepared to be blown away by the thoughts and questions new believers or "not yet" believers have. You don't want to miss them! You know what, they don't want to be missed either so as you're facilitating, keep an eye out for the movers in your next zoom call!

If you have any questions on facilitating or any of the 9 Spiritual Arts, feel free reach out and ask me or one of the members in your church!

God bless you and be a blessing,
Shoshannah/Shanny Snyder

Learn from the participants in the 9 Arts Grow Group

Some participants in the 9 Arts Grow Group last fall wrote about the impact of the class.

Patty Peterson shares how various arts, including the Art of Listening and Asking Questions, opened doors of conversation between sisters at a crucial time:

I like to think of myself as a good listener because I give people all the time they want to talk. But, when I was asked to assess my Listening skill level from 1 to 5 in the 9 Arts Primer, the description included "without editorializing or offering my own unsolicited opinions." Ouch. Then, the Art of Asking Questions gave me a way to use questions instead of statements to solicit more information and help a person think more deeply.

I recently traveled a thousand miles to visit my sister in the hospital before she died. She mentioned that she was feeling afraid. With my new 9 Arts awareness, instead of saying, "There's nothing to be afraid of" or "Just take it to God in prayer", I asked what her fears were and learned she was afraid of dying alone. That was an important piece of information for others in the room because they were able to arrange for her to return home for her final few days where her husband could be with her in person.

GIFTS Shelter News by Beau Gilmore

I would like to thank all those who either supplied food or their time to the GIFTS shelter in April. It was really great to finally get back into the shelter and serve. This continues to show our support in God's work for the homeless men. They appreciate the quality meals and talk about how good they are! They don't always get the quality meals that we provide. A huge thanks to Pam Adams for her cooking. I will be scheduling our next week for early October.

There are 15 men living at the shelter right now, with attempts to get to 21 in the next several weeks. COVID has limited our ability to serve the men with the programs we have had in the past. I have just returned to lead the Wednesday morning devotions after they had been canceled last year as a result of a major change in the leadership of GIFTS. GIFTS is now in search of a new director and returning on the old format.

The GIFTS thrift store is up and running very well. They are looking for volunteers for several positions. If you would like to volunteer please contact me or the store. If you have items to donate you can drop them off at the store, not at the shelter. The store is located in the old Black Bridge Bowl building (1141 Black Bridge Road, Janesville.)

Please keep the shelter and store in your prayers. There are many openings for providing meals. If you would like to provide a meal for them please contact me and I'll help set it up.

Operation Christmas Child by Julianna Crandall

Julianna Crandall wrote this article for the Milton High School December 2020 issue of their paper, MHS Today. Even though it's May, it's never a wrong time to think about organizing and purchasing for Operation Christmas Child!

As the holidays draw near, many people are scrambling to find the perfect gifts for dear friends and family. However, over at the Milton Seventh Day Baptist church, they have been preparing for holiday gift giving for months.

Starting in September, a committee headed by Linda Lyke, outreach coordinator at Milton SDB, put their heads together to plan this year's Operation

Christmas Child (OCC) packing party. This yearly event consists of adults and children alike coming together to stuff shoeboxes full of necessities and toys for children in need. These shoeboxes are then shipped all around the world for children to open as a very special Christmas present. Something like a shoebox seems so simple, but has a big impact.

OCC's mission is to "spread Jesus' love and the Gospel message around the world starting with a simple shoebox," Lyke said. She has been in charge of coordinating Milton SDB's event for four years, and continues to do so because "it reaches people locally within our own church, in our community. We invite churches to participate, we invite businesses to participate. It's a collaborative effort of people in the community."

One Milton SDB church goer and MHS junior, Genna Mullen, has been participating in OCC for as long as she can remember. "My favorite part about OCC is the joy I get from packing the boxes; knowing that the kids who receive them are going to be so happy for something as simple as a toothbrush, toothpaste, and a small toy," Mullen said. She encourages community members to participate in this project or others as a "good reminder of how fortunate we are to have what we have.”

Mullen is just one volunteer out of the many who attend packing parties, but there are also those on the OCC committee.

Lyke is in charge of delegating tasks to her committee members and making sure they all pull together. Just a few of these roles include a shopper to find good deals on items to give the kids, an item coordinator to put these items together in an orderly fashion, a marketer to spread the word, and a community coordinator to bring people together for the event.

The collaborative element in OCC can involve people of all ages and backgrounds, as the youngest member on the OCC committee, Ellie Greene, is just 12 years old. “Ellie came onto the first zoom meeting and right away she started offering ideas,” said Lyke, sounding very proud. Greene serves as the community coordinator, sending letters and emails to various churches and businesses to get them involved.

While quite festive, this community involvement doesn't end with the holiday season. “Ellie and I are talking about things that she can do through the year to reach out to community members,” Lyke said. Her hope for the future is “reaching out in new ways to our community. Throughout the year, having them collaborate with us, and then through the packing party.”

Lyke encourages community members to donate items – not just during the holiday season, but year round—to OCC. Items such as hygiene products, school supplies, and fun toys make a big difference in the lives of the children who receive the shoeboxes.

Last year, OCC shipped shoeboxes to 10.5 million children in over 100 countries. Lyke said, “I love that they're hitting countries that have never heard the Gospel before. That's a beautiful part of the project.”

The true mission of the project is to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The kids who receive a shoebox are also given the opportunity to attend a discipleship class.

“It's not just a shoebox, it's a discipleship program,” Lyke said. According to the OCC website, more than 11.2 million boys and girls have made a decision to follow Christ.

The organization and program also hope to create community in the areas they serve.

“Local Christians who know the culture and language best are given effective resources and a solid Biblical foundation so that they can communicate the Gospel within their own communities,” reads the OCC website.

Even for the volunteers involved at any point in the process, this project is life-changing. “People who come into our church and also our church members can be exposed to the Gospel through a community of believers doing this project together,” said Lyke.

Lyke's message for anyone wanting to be involved in this project or a similar one is to “find a project you're passionate about and use your talents to help, even if it's in a simple way. And the important thing is to stick with it! Because everyone has unique talents and gifts that they can use to help.”

Idea for the OCC Shoeboxes:

Save 10 Culver's kids meal coupons and trade them in for deflated playground or soccer balls.

Adults can get kids meals too!
And custard comes with it!
