Heritage Sabbath – October 28-29

God is Doing a New Thing

by Pastor Nate Crandall

Milton SDB, we have a great spiritual heritage! By the grace of God we are building an ongoing heritage which will bring honor and glory to Jesus Christ. Let's celebrate it!

This year's Heritage Sabbath celebration begins on Friday night with Pizza and Praise. Come for pizza and stay for praise and worship. We welcome back Aaron Andries (who is just awesome!) both to lead us in worship on Friday night and Sabbath morning.

On Sabbath morning we welcome Pastor Dave Stall, the Church Planting Coordinator for Seventh Day Baptists in North America, as he shares with us about God's plan for spreading the gospel through new churches. He will be leading in Sabbath School, speaking during the service, and sharing in the afternoon after lunch about church planting. In addition we will be hearing from Phil and Bethany Lawton, the church planters we sponsor, as they update us with what the Lord is doing in Chicago.

Back by popular demand is the Turkey Dinner. We haven't had much opportunity to share around the table in recent years, so let's take advantage of this time for good food and fellowship right after the worship service.

To round out the events of the weekend, come back at 6:00 pm for fun with Trivia. There will be snacks, drinks, and, YES, prizes!! Teams of 6-8 people are already forming. If you'd like to put together a team, contact Melissa Lade to reserve your spot.

This is going to be a great weekend. Let's pray for the Lord to move in powerful ways!!

Friday Night, Oct. 28:

October Prayer Focus – Our Riches in Christ

by Renee Sanford, Prayer Coordinator

We have great riches from the past - a great cloud of witnesses. From the Bible: Noah, Abraham, Moses, Mary, Joseph, Jesus, Peter, Paul, Lydia. In church history and missions – St. Augustine, Martin Luther, Walter Tyn-dale, Elisabeth Eliot. As Seventh Day Baptists – a heritage of adherence to God’s word, commitment to discipleship and education, establishing churches around the world. This is our inheritance.

We have great riches here and now – as children of God. Salvation in Christ, the presence of the Holy Spirit, our church with its leadership and Christian fellowship, a country where we can worship freely, ready access to God’s word, and eyes open to the blessing of the Sabbath.

We have great riches coming in the future - an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, reserved in heaven for us as joint heirs with Christ. This hope of eternal life will not fail. We are wealthy beyond measure. When we read verses on our rich heritage in Christ, they are followed by challenges – we must press on to win the race, we must prepare for action, we must conduct ourselves with reverent fear (See Hebrews 11-12, 1 Peter 1). The question before us, then, and our prayer focus for October, is this: What do we do with these riches? How do we invest them (and avoid the frightening idea of burying our talents and displeasing our master (Matthew 25).

LORD, show us how to use our incredible riches for your glory!

- May our worship, our praise and our thanksgiving lift up the name of Jesus
- May we serve one another and love on our neighbors
- Keep us hungry for your word and committed to obedience
- Make us diligent in prayer for your will to be done

- Give us a heart for the lost and a passion for the Great Commission
- Let us build on our heritage by honoring the Sabbath
- Let us build on our heritage by dedicating ourselves to being disciples and making disciples
- Let us build on our heritage of planting churches by (!) participating in planting churches (!)
- Let us build on our heritage by spreading the gospel to our Jerusalem (our city), our Judea (people culturally similar to us), our Samaria (closely related peoples) and the ends of the earth (the unreached across cultural barriers)

Thank you, LORD, for giving us such a rich inheritance – from the past, here in the present and for all eternity.

Blessed be the name of the LORD.

Have you read a good book lately?

The Elders have provided us with a list of 10 books that they recommend we read. Beginning this October, we will start a Book Club to read and discuss some of these books. We will meet once per month, and read and discuss one book per month. You will need to read the book before the club meeting.

Our first Book Club meeting will be Thursday, October 13 at 6:30 p.m. in the church library and we will be talking about Frank Peretti’s book This Present Darkness. Bring your questions, thoughts, and things you want to discuss. Stay tuned for details about our next book club in November.

October is Pastor/Elder Appreciation Month

by Renee Sanford, Prayer Coordinator

October is Pastor Appreciation month. The Biblical meaning of pastor is a shepherd – one who cares for and leads a flock. The word pastor comes from the Latin pascere meaning "to lead, to pasture, to cause to eat". The term includes elders.

The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching
(1 Timothy 5:17)

Thank you for Pastor Nate, Pastor Liz and Elders Carl Greene and Nick Kersten. How much God loves us to give us such leadership to guide us, care for us, and open God's word to us.

Let's bless them with our words of thanks, by honoring their vision, guidance & teaching, by supporting the work of our church, as well as with gifts or cards. And, of course, by praying for them.

Here are some ways to pray for them:

P – Passion. Lord, please keep Pastor Nate, Pastor Liz, Pastor Carl and Pastor Nick passionate for you. May their love for you be deepened. Let that love pour out in love for the people they are called to serve. Let the name of Jesus be lifted up and God be glorified!

A – Adversity. Help our Leaders lovingly deal with any adversity they face in the church or their personal lives. Let them handle things based on the teachings in your word. Help them gently confront sin and lead us into times of conviction, repentance, forgiveness and reconciliation.

S – Strength. Give our pastors and elders good health and the physical strength and energy needed to minister to their families, the church and our community. Keep their families healthy and their marriages strong.

T – Teaching. Give them all a hunger for your Word. Let their teaching flow from your Word illuminated by your Spirit. Let it be effective, powerful & clear and bear much fruit.

O – Organization. Help Pastor Nate, Pastor Liz, Pastor Carl and Pastor Nick manage their time and the multiple issues they need to focus on. Help them set priorities and manage distractions. Bring them helpers to take on ministry leadership and service.

R – Rest. Give our hardworking pastors and elders times of rest and relaxation. Help them sleep well and be refreshed.

S – Seeking God. Keep our pastors and elders focused on seeking you and your truth. Give them your vision for the future. Let them seek you with all their heart. Bless them with the deep desires of their hearts.

Tell your Kids: Children's Church is Here!

By Angie Mullen, Director of Children's Ministries

After listening to the Lord's leading and waiting several years for his perfect time, we are excited to begin offering a new discipleship opportunity for our children on Sabbath mornings.

Designed for our children in k-5th grades, Children's Church (CC) will begin on Sabbath, Oct. 1. CC will be held 2 Sabbaths a month for the time being. (See calendar) As we recruit more adults to lead CC, we will begin to offer more weeks of teaching designed specifically for our kids.

Children will begin in our traditional "upstairs" worship service in the Sanctuary at 10:30 with their families. They will participate in the Praise and Worship time as well as the Children's Message. They will be dismissed from the Children's Message to meet the CC leaders in the parlor and then led to the Large Group Area for this special time designed just for them.

Our lessons will begin where the fall quarter of the Gospel Project begins and is titled From Rebellion to Exile. In our first unit, our children will be studying in 1 and 2 Kings, Isaiah, Jonah, and Nahum. They will answer questions like, "What is idolatry?", "What is repentance?" and "What makes people special?" The Gospel Project helps us understand how each lesson leads us back to Jesus and his gift of salvation to us. Each week our kids will have a brief activity, a Bible lesson with application and, as time allows, sing songs and play a game. Children will return to the Parlor at the end of the "upstairs" worship service to rejoin their families.

Many thanks to those who have volunteered to lead our children in their own time of teaching and learning: Kathy Crandall, Tara Rotzoll, Benny Uhlich, Marcy Kersten, Tricia Thorngate, Mackynzie Rotzoll, and Angie Mullen. With just a few more willing servants, we will look forward to adding CC weeks to our calendar in 2023. Curious about such an opportunity to serve? Talk to Angie Mullen. You could observe what we do and see if it's something you feel led to do.

We can't wait to see what God's going to teach our children on Sabbath mornings in CC!

GIFTS Homeless Shelter:

Please sign up at the Welcome Center for our church's fall week to serve at GIFTS.

Sign ups are for volunteering at the shelter one evening to serve a meal to the men or do an overnight. Either two men or a married couple can stay for the overnights. If you signed up to donate food for the meals, bring the food by noon on Saturday, October 1.

These are the dates: Monday, October 3; Tuesday, October 4; Wednesday, October 5; and Thursday, October 6th.

Nursery Closed

We will need to close the Nursery and cancel the Children's Fellowship time at 9:00 on Oct. 1 due to lack of available staff. All other Sabbaths in October are currently staffed. If you know anyone who may be interested in working in our Nursery, please contact Angie Mullen.

Awana is Underway by Angie Mullen, Children's Ministries Director

The church is once again a busy place on Wednesday nights, filled with high energy kids who are here to learn about all Jesus has for them and how they can be his disciples. We currently have over 60 children registered, 10 new families, and 26 adults who are committed to serving them this year. The reviews are in from several of our new parents. They have commented things like "My kids had so much fun their first week. I wish we had joined earlier!" And "Tonight was my fifth grader's first time at Awana and she loved it! She actually said she wished it was on Monday's and Friday's too!"

Please join us in praising God for bringing the people here – the children, their families, and the volunteers. May we make the most of this opportunity He has given us. Join us in praying for the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be heard where it hasn't been heard before, for children who haven't yet accepted Jesus as Savior to understand this message and take that important, life-saving decision, and for those who know him to learn something new about God each week. Would you also join us in praying for ways to encourage children and families to open their Bibles and handbooks at home together during the week?

We also ask the Holy Spirit to remind the children of the lessons they have learned at Awana and apply it to their lives outside of the church walls. We are serious about joining God in making these children RESILIENT DISCIPLES – kids who will love Jesus for the rest of their lives!

It's never too late to invite a child to join us or become an Awana volunteer!

Operation Christmas Child

Our packing party is right around the corner –

Saturday, November 5th from 1 to 3 p.m.

Watch for sign-up sheets at the Welcome Center starting October 15 to volunteer at the event or to pack boxes.

Monetary donations from individuals or businesses are greatly appreciated so those last minute necessities for the boxes can be purchased:

Accepting donations from area businesses: Our church's local OCC efforts includes approaching businesses for monetary donations – for supplies and for the $10 shipping cost per box.

Do you work for a business who may be willing to donate towards our OCC project?

These items are the greatest needs to ensure we have all the supplies to pack the boxes. Place items in the trunk on the back stairwell.

Children's Clothing: caps, hats, gloves/mittens, scarves, socks, flipflops, sandals, shoes, underwear, shirts

Small Toys and WOW Items: flashlights with batteries, small cars, small dolls, small stuffed animals to name a few; WOW items are anything that will wow a child when he opens the box, something fun or useful

Our church's 295 boxes, packed in November of 2021, were shipped to 7 countries on 4 continents: Namibia, Colombia, Malawi, Republic of eorgia, Rwanda, Mongolia, and Gabon.

We are setting a goal of packing 300 boxes this year!

Pray about where God wants our boxes to go this year. And that children and families would come to know Jesus through these simple gifts.

Culvers Tokens

Save your kids meal tokens. After collecting 10 tokens, you can turn them in at any Culvers for a soccer ball, basketball or Scoopy doll. Perfect for the OCC Boxes!

Pick up these OCC Items at the Welcome Center:

Let's Be Friends sheet: Fill these out prior to the Packing Party to personalize the boxes with a drawing/letter to the child who receives it.

Kits or Crafts Ideas: Make a few items to fill the boxes, such as sewing kits, tool kits, fishing kits or friendship bracelets to name a few. Most of the ideas require very few supplies.

Visiting the Rohingya

by Jen Dutcher

Several of us recently visited a mosque in Milwaukee to hand out school supplies to Muslim children. I had no idea what to expect. I assumed the mosque was going to look like some sort of temple, so I was surprised when we pulled up to a three-story row house in a neighborhood that has seen better days. We were warmly greeted outside by a young man (18 years of age or so) with a bright smile, wearing a white thobe (a long robe worn by Muslim men) and a white kufi (brimless hat). I later learned that he is an older son of the Rohingya leader who passed away a few months earlier. This son later told us that while his father was on his death bed, he made him promise that he'd carry on his father's work in the mosque.

As we carried in the boxes of school supplies, I noticed a Muslim woman, with her hijab draped across her face, watching us from the street with a curious and untrusting gaze.

Once inside, we removed our footwear and placed them on the floor of the modest foyer, along with dozens of other pairs of little shoes. A few moments later, we were invited to sit down in the adjoining parlor. The young man's mother, the widow, joined us. She was friendly and graciously accepted our basket of fruit as a condolence gift. Hospitality is very important in the Rohingya people, so the widow was embarrassed that she had forgotten we were coming for a visit and didn't have a meal prepared for us. We assured her that the sliced mango, banana, and fruit punch was enough.

Pastor Nate and Linda Lyke had been to the mosque previously, so there was some familiarity between them and the widow and her sons. Although there was a bit of a language barrier, conversation flowed naturally.

When it came time to pass out the school supplies (pencil boxes filled with supplies), the new young leader in white brought down the first group of 15 children. They were instructed to first greet us, so they formed a single line and went around our small circle greeting each of us individually, using both of their hands to gently shake both of ours while saying, "Salam Alaikum", which means "peace be upon you". Several of us responded with, "Wa alaikum salam", which means "peace be also with you". Some of the children were surprised by this and smiled. I was struck by how shy many of the children were. Most made no eye-contact while shaking hands. I realize though that it had to be way out of their comfort zone to touch hands with strangers. One of the older girls, wearing a grey hijab, stood out to me. I guess her to be around 14 years old. Her face was covered with what looked like burn scars. When I glanced down as we shook hands, I noticed the same burn scars all over her hands and wrists. She had a pretty smile!

Visiting the Rohingya, continued

A little while later, the Rohingya woman I saw outside earlier, who was leery of us, came in and sat with us. I think she was in her early 30's. She mostly had her head down, tilted off to the side, and occasionally stole glances of us. While conversation continued around her, I was able to catch her eye at one point and we exchanged gentle smiles. The depth of hurt I saw in this woman's eyes and her overall countenance made my heart break. I may be wrong, I hope I'm wrong, but there's very little doubt in my mind that she has seen and been through some horrible things. I continue to pray that God will heal her trauma.

A few of our Milwaukee Rohingya friends with our group

A few times throughout our visit, we told our Rohingya friends that we were there because Lord Jesus loves them. We have to preface Jesus with "Lord" so they know we believe him to be the Savior. If we just said "Jesus", they'd think we believe him to be just a prophet as Muslims believe.

The Rohingya I met that evening are a beautiful, strong, resilient, proud and respectful people. Please pray that our relationship with them will prosper and they will come to know Jesus as Lord Jesus.

Conference-Wide Offering Until October 31

Because our Conference meetings have not meet in person for the last few years, we are offering an opportunity to give to support the work of the conference. The SDB Conference has undertaken a number of significant communication innovations – from increased digital engagement to enhancing their print initiatives. They would love our partnership in continuing this process.

Here are some ways that we can participate by giving monetarily:

- Put a check made out to Milton SDB Church in the offering box, noting "Conference offering" in the memo.
- Send a check made out to SDB General Conference to the SDB Center, PO Box 1678, Janesville WI 53567, noting "Conference offering" in the memo.
- Give online: www.seventhdaybaptist.org/giving/

Jan Teat and our Local Q Place by Linda Lyke

Jan Teat has been an encourager, problem solver, prayer warrior and mentor for our church's Q Place group for seven years now.

Melissa Lade, Shanny Snyder and Linda Lyke were trained by Jan in 2017 and since then she has been supporting our church in this evangelistic discipleship effort.

From June through September this year, our local Q Place group took place at the Milton YMCA. They listed the group on their web site under "Spiritual Fitness" along with their other physical fitness classes. A number of ladies attended in person and also online; that was a new element for our group to offer both options at the same time. New seasons, new challenges.

These women are experiencing real losses and are seeking God in this safe non-judgmental discussion group. The Milton YMCA was a neutral space in the community to host our group. If you have a connection to the Milton YMCA, please say thanks for letting us partner with them. It was a great experience!

You Are Making This Possible by Jan Teat

Whenever I have a follow-up meeting with people who went through one of my Q Place Coaching groups, I'm so encouraged by how God is working! I also love to see how God works through connections over time and multiplies his disciples. You are making this possible through your support, encouragement, and prayers. Thank you!

In June, my Q Place mentor and friend Martha Reapsome passed away. She was a strong, faithful supporter of Q Place even after retiring and we always knew that she was praying for us. She is deeply missed. One of Martha's recent prayers was Romans 15:13. May this verse also encourage you: May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of his Holy Spirit. (Romans 15:13)

When Gordon and Nancy, from Ontario, came to my Q Place Coaching group in January 2021, they were already serious about starting a group with seekers. They had been practicing the 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations since 2019 when they learned about the 9 Arts at a conference. In fact, they had also taken a group from their church through the 9 Arts so they would all grow in reaching out to those who don't yet have a relationship with Jesus. In the process they brought the 9 Arts practices into their everyday lives – noticing, praying, listening, asking good questions – and neighbors have become friends.

So, after Gordon and Nancy went through my 7-session Q Place Coaching group, it was only a matter of months before they started a group in their neighborhood! Their group met periodically all last fall and winter, discussing life and God. The group took a break for the summer, and yet conversations have continued as Gordon and Nancy have invited neighbors over for meals and visits. Now their friends are eager to get started again with their group – and this time Gordon and Nancy plan to bring in our short Bible discussion guides that help with times of crisis and uncertainty. Please pray for their group as they start discussing the Bible! Gordon feels the time is right to invite his golfing friends to join them. And a couple from another church wants to come and experience their Q Place group!

Recently Gordon and Nancy also connected their church with our Thriving Groups Workshop, and 15 came! This

3-hour training helps Christians get familiar with Q Place's Scripture discussion-based approach in their own small groups. This fills a need right now in many churches and helps more Christians understand how these groups work. We believe that God will use this pathway to bring many more Christians into our 7-session Q Place Coaching groups so they will also start groups with neighbors, like Gordon and Nancy have. They are leading the way for many others to grow in sharing Jesus through their everyday lives!

Nancy recently said, "Q Place has been good for me. It helps me know how to bring God into the situation. It has encouraged me to share my faith with others."

Thank you, Milton SDB Church, for partnering in this exciting work!

In Christ's love,

Jan Teat

An Update from Dylan Dodd by Linda Lyke

Dylan is on a nine month mission trip to various countries. Thank you church family for supporting him in God's mission to make Christ known around the world. He is currently in Costa Rica, will be home on November 10th for a month, then traveling to South Africa for six months. Learning the Spanish language, and being immersed in the culture while living with a host family is the focus of the Costa Rica trip thus far. Here is an excerpt of his email update.

"Costa Rica is a very different from the States in that life is very laid back. It's not a big deal if you show up late for something, just as long as you show up. Family is also very important here and we spend a lot of time with our family doing activities, chores, and talking. The Church here is also super great! A lot of the people are on fire for the Lord and it's so awesome to witness! The worship here is amazing and the church services are really good... At least I think they are... It's kinda hard to know when you don't actually speak the same language.

The Lord is moving in small, everyday ways. Our focus has mostly been to build meaningful relationships with the people in this community. I have gotten pretty close to my host family so far. I've already made a really good friend with someone my age who's name is Eddy. We can hardly communicate in each other's language BUT we still have a great time together as I fumble through my words and as we both use a lot of hand gestures. And when I mean a lot of hand gestures I mean A LOT. Our friendship is basically just a big game of Pictionary, except the only loser is me."

Dylan's sense of humor is evident throughout! He asks for prayer for guidance and wisdom as he takes this exciting step in following the Lord.
