John 13:34-35

To follow Jesus' command to love one another, we must know the love of God, live it in ourselves, and then purposefully and sacrificially show it. When we do, God's love is known both inside and outside the church.

1. Loving One Another Requires Knowing the Cost of Love Together (v.34)
2. Loving One Another Requires Receiving God's Costly Love for Ourselves (v.34)
3. Loving One Another Means Paying the Cost of Love for Others (v.34-35)
4. The payoff: Real Community, and the Magnet it is. (v.35)
